

Halloween Night

It is a _____ Halloween night. As I am _____ (adjective) (verb)
down the street a _____ monster that looks like (adjective)
a _____ _____ out from (adjective) (noun) (verb)
behind a bush. “ _____, you _____ me!”
(exclamation) (emotion)
“Sorry” said the _____. “I’m in a rush to get to (noun)
the _____ so that I can get Halloween
(noun)
_____.” He is a monster but I think Halloween
(noun)
_____ sounds really good so I follow the (noun)
_____ monster. We ran _____ all the way (adjective) (adverb)
down the street, through a _____ and over a (noun)
_____ only to find that there was no Halloween
(noun)
_____. It just goes to show you that you (noun)
should not trust a _____ monster on Halloween!
(adjective)